"Let ignorance talk as it will, learning has its value."

Your future is an experience yet to be lived. What you make of it depends upon the attitude you take with you. Will you be satisfied to get by or will you set out upon the pursuit of excellence in whatever you undertake to do?

You are about to enter the competitive world and its various fields of endeavor. May I suggest that whatever you do, do it honestly; do it cheerfully; and do it unselfishly.

STUDENT COUNCIL

To hear the typical student talk about the Student Council, you would think he had never heard of all the successful activities they have sponsored as well as the student demands they have effected. Perhaps their most lasting contribution is their accepted revision of the school Dress and Youth codes. The Student Council has sponsored many other activities as well, such as their annually enthusiastic Teacher's Tea, their new Wear Anything Day, which was wildly successful, their Christmas Dance, their Christmas Welfare project as well as their paperback book drive for the boys in Vietnam, their second annual dating game, hosted by Mr. Trevisani, their April Dance, their Donkey Basketball game, their . . .

Headed up by Paul Mucci for the past two years, and advised by Mr. Commins, the council is "enthusiastic and willing to work" (who could ever forget those talks by the homeroom representatives!), and will probably be best remembered for the live turkey they contributed to the Thanksgiving game.

ALLIED YOUTH

Allied Youth is one club which places a great deal of emphasis on the private responsibility of the individual. The purpose of A.Y. is to prove that the use of alcohol, drugs, and tobacco is not necessary for the enjoyment of social events. Through films and talks A.Y. demonstrates the harmful effects of such stimulants; and through planned events, the club proves you can have a good time without the use of alcohol and drugs. But the decision to use these stimulants rests at all times with the individual.

The activities of A.Y. take the members all over the country. A kick-off dance at the West, and the perennial candy sale were aimed at earning money for the trip to the annual International Conference, this year at Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania. After their Christmas party at a local orphanage, A.Y.er's sponsored a square dance and an auction. In April, they went to the Regional Conference in Winooski, Vermont. The year ended with the closing banquet and installation of officers, but the friends A.Y.er's have made will be permanent reminders of the fun they had in the club.

CHRONICLE

Delete
Avoid armpits
Wrong font
Avoid rivers of type
No naked headlines
Tombstones should be eliminated

These are just a few examples of the journalistic jargon which can be heard outside Room 75 daily. Under the direction of Miss Cutler and editor-in-chief Jeanne Erlandson, the Chronicle editors have been learning the correct journalistic procedures which have enabled them to improve and remodel the Chronicle.

Despite technical problems, the editors always seemed to put the paper together and beat deadlines. One of those problems included stuffing seven people in a Cougar with bucket seats in order to reach the publisher in time to lay-out the paper. Realizing the odds the editors worked against, all of us should greatly appreciate their efforts.

SKI CLUB

The A.H.S. Ski Club, formed by a group of enthusiastic skiers, was organized to draw together students who are interested in skiing and want to learn more about the sport.

After a successful trip to Waterville Valley, the club members were better prepared to cope with their second trip to Loon Mountain. Although few attended, the skiers enjoyed uncrowded slopes, excellent conditions and fine chilly weather. Two more trips to Gunstock and Mt. Snow rounded out the year with only the usual lacerations, and contusions (although the major accidents were the occasional pairs of split pants).

Under the new adviser, Mrs. Maciula, the five officers (Carlo Brillante, Chris Barnstead, Joan DiStefano, Tom Heaslip, and Carolyn Powers) have spent long hours planning the trips, and longer hours convincing the members that it's a "pleasant" bus ride to the towering mountains of the North! A unique extra of the 1969 club is the fine music from the back of the bus, compliments of the "Ski Club Glee Club"!

All of us have been influenced at some time by one really outstanding teacher, someone who has shown a real concern, someone whom we valued both as a friend and as a guide. The Future Teachers of America is dedicated to preserving this influence. The club has attempted to provide an insight into the teaching career to its members through such projects as tutoring, apprentice teaching, the Spring Convention, and a trip through the Arlington Grammar Schools. Fund-raising activities include bake sales and a Christmas bazaar. The proceeds are given as a gift to a deserving senior who plans to enter the teaching profession.

F.H.A.

"Educate a woman and you educate a family" is essentially the basis for the Future Homemakers of America. The FHA has emphasized their overall goal, "To help individuals improve personal, family, and community living", through various levels of activities. The FHA this year was deeply involved in activities on the state level through hosting the Fall State Meeting of FHA, as well as attending a state training session in October. Moreover, Pam McPherson was State Vice President of Recreation. The FHA was also very active on the community level, collecting food and clothing for a needy family for Christmas, as well as sponsoring talks on several professions.

FILM CLUB

Especially interested in animation, the members of the Film Club have observed the works of various animation artists such as Norman McCairen, and in turn have completed two animated films of their own, synchronized with their own music soundtrack. Other projects have been time lapse photography of clouds, as well as a film compiled of fast flashes of advertising.

OPEN FORUM

A new club this year is the Open Forum, whose commendable purpose is to discuss issues of local, state, national, and international significance. Through moderated open sessions concerning topics chosen by the members, the club attempts to prevent student apathy by arousing true interests in public affairs. The club has been concerned with such relevant issues as the draft, welfare, the Vietnam conflict, the new administration, the electoral college, the voting age ...

LATIN CLUB

Meticulously dressed in immaculate togas ("you just throw them on"), the Latin Club members, fourth year Latin students, meet twice a month in Room 26. Among the traditional activities they indulge in are visits to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts in the fall and spring. But the most eagerly anticipated event is the annual Roman banquet, where members put into practice the old Roman customs they have been learning all year long.

Amid the splendor of the ancient empire sits a new figure, Mr. McElearney, (best known for his old Roman saying: How many meatballs did you eat at lunch today, Caesar?" "Et tu, Brute?"), who has already gained the respect and admiration of the members.

SCIENCE CLUB

Contrary to appearances, those mysterious shadowy figures on top of AHS at night are not performing investigations of some ancient art of black magic. These dedicated students are members of the Astronomy group, one of the many subgroups which together form the Science Club. There is also a meteorology group which operates the AHS weather station, a ham radio group arranging for the license and opening of an AHS radio station, and other groups interested in oceanography and physics.

In conjunction with science classes' subject matter and club members' interests, the Science Club has invited various speakers and has held a bi-weekly film festival. The club, through the efforts of Mr. Botelho and Mr. Clough, has also maintained ties with the Boston Museum of Science, the Harvard Observatory and Aquarium, and Symmes Hospital, with field trips to these various institutions. The club has also tried to relate scientifically the interests of enjoyment and money, resulting in success in both their car wash and their winter carnival.

The major project of the year, as always, the Science Fair, offers fun and competition, with valuable preparation for the state and regional fairs.

CHESS CLUB

"Queen to black King three—Check."

"King to white Queen one."

"Rook to black Rook one—Checkmate!"

This is the sort of conversation you might hear wafting gently through the air outside Room 5 every day after school. You are listening to two members of the Chess Club finishing up a game. Under the guidance of Miss Panagopoulos (who learned how to play chess this year) and club president Tom Molloy, the group meets every day after school. On Fridays the chess team participates in matches with other schools, and generally places high in the chess league.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Pictured are: M. Abruzzese, J. Achorn, K. Baldwin, L. Bartholomew, K. Blomquist, M. Corcoran, L. Fereshetian, N. Floreen, D. Glines, J. Gricus, J. Gustaff, S. Hilferty, B.

Kelley, C. McMahon, A. Pidano, S. Nason, M. Thayer, C. Williams, E. Williams, S. Wironen, Mrs. Portner, Adviser.

The production of a play such as Life With Father, presented by the Drama Club in the fall of 1968, is fraught with more dangers than you'd expect. The problems ranged from teaching Father (portrayed by a magnificently mustachioed Peter Avery) to play tiddley-winks to an extremely lively seven-year old Harlan (Joey Gustaff) who managed to swallow a tooth in the middle of the third act. But with the polished acting of Cheryl McMahon as the peacemaking mother; Mike Abruzzese, Mike O'Loughlin and Richard Zaslow as the three other sons; Ellen Estram, Priscilla Sherburne, Barb Thunell, Jan Konick and Barbara Kelley as a progression of nervous servants; Steve Nason as Dr. Humphreys and Steve Wilson as Dr. Somers; Debbie Quayle as Cora; Susan Hilferty as Mary Skinner; and Karl Baldwin as the sanctimonious Reverend Dr. Lloyd, the production went without a hitch. Through the efforts of the new director Mrs. Portner and the new student director Joan Gustaff, this appealing depiction of a soft-hearted Victorian tyrant who rules his family with an iron fist and "still manages to stay two jumps behind" was enthusiastically appreciated.

PEP CLUB

Those junior and senior girls you've been seeing running around the school dressed alike in maroon sweaters and maroon checked grey culottes are members of one of the most successful new clubs at AHS, the Spirit Club. Popularly known as AEX, the club is composed of 150 junior and senior boys and girls, ably directed by Mrs. Maciula and Mrs. Ortwein, and headed up by none other than John Carvello. Each member is required to wear a uniform of red and grey, and as a group they are an impressive cheering squad at games.

Created to improve school spirit, AEX has sponsored some of the most enthusiastic pep rallies of the year. Who could ever forget Tiny Tim and those Weymouth football players? During the Christmas season the Spirit Club sponsored a Holiday Door Decorating Contest, which really did put everyone in a holiday mood. And all through the year the club sold spirit ribbons to show school-wide support for the team before a game.

DEBATING CLUB

The Debating Club, advised by Mr. Hendrickson, experimented with several new forms of organization this year. The first half of the year the club was headed by Randy Pass, and debate was organized in the traditional manner of sharply formal positive and negative positions. The second half of the year, lead by Lise Gelineau, was devoted to a more relaxed debate-discussion format wherein one member presented his views and debated them with the entire club. At the end of a year of experimentation the Debating Club will assess the results and choose the form it feels best suits the needs of rational discussion today.

ART CLUB

A typical Art Club meeting was a wild birthday party in December for the adviser, Miss Finberg. The members celebrated with a Texas-shaped birthday cake, rock music and the Christmas decorations in the room.

In such a casual atmosphere, the Art Club experiments with different kinds of artistic expression, such as melted crayon drawings and abstract paintings. Trips to places like Walden Pond enable the members of the club to capture the beauty of nature on canvas.

In the spring, the club presents its annual art exhibit and this year a boutique also.

CIVIL RIGHTS

Pictured are: M. Auditore, K. Blomquist, M. Corcoran, S. Friberg, C. Gilmore, K. Griffith, J. Kleban, J. Malatesta, K. Muello, J. Neri, D. Nicholl, P. O'Neil, A. Pidano, K. Savio, E. Widder, Pres.; Mrs. Lamstein, Adviser.

After hearing a talk on program suggestions by Mrs. Paul Doress, Chairman of the Educational Committee of the Arlington Civil Rights Committee, the Civil Rights Club decided to broaden the scope of their interests to include human civil rights.

The club has been involved in attempting to improve black-white relationships. By sponsoring movies and discussions, notably the NET film "New Mood" and a forum on "Black and White", the members have endeavored to recognize personal prejudices.

Under the auspices of the Elizabeth Peabody House in Somerville, many members have tutored culturally deprived children.

In following their interest in student civil rights, the club has agitated for curriculum changes. New courses, preferably in the social sciences, would be taught by graduate students from neighboring universities. There is now a half-year course in Afro-American history taught by a doctoral candidate from a nearby university.

The club hopes to reduce censorship of school publications. They also intend to send a collection of much-needed educational books to Zambia.

The club has aroused much interest this year through the enthusiastic leadership of Mrs. Sarah Lambstein, the adviser, and Edie Widder, the president.

AUDIO VISUAL

The members of the Audio-Visual Club have a hard job. They have to arrive at school to prepare the audio-visual materials teachers will need each day when most students are just climbing out of bed. The experience they gain, however, in such fields as photography, film production and development, graphics and design, and video-tape showing is valuable.

GIRLS' CLUB

How many clubs do you know that have sponsored a student-faculty basketball game, a speaker from a fashion house, a Christmas party for 13 Arlington welfare children, and one for the Hillside Nursing Home, attended a conference and slumber party at the Y.W.C.A., planned a weekend in Marshfield, made a spring trip to Montreal, sponsored a semi-formal, and conducted several fund-raising projects in one year? The Senior Girls' Club, sponsored by the Y.W.C.A., enthusiastically directed by Miss Finberg and Miss Spagnuolo, aided by Miss Barbara Morton from the Y.W.C.A., and headed up by Linda Jones, has been busy all year planning and carrying out all these activities. Organizing 110 junior and senior girls is not easy, but with the help of a six member cabinet and a monthly newsletter published by Jane Phillips and Diane Nicholl, the club manages bi-weekly meetings and numerous projects and manages them well.

The Junior Girls' Club is part of the whole organization, but separate in leadership and in some activities. On their own they have sponsored a model from the Carol Nash Agency, a dance, a car wash, and a trip to Perkins' Institute for the Blind.

Judging by the results, the Girls' Club's attempts as a link between the school and the community have certainly been successful.

BEDFORD VOLUNTEERS

Arlington High School was one of the first schools in the area to participate in the youth volunteer program at Bedford Veterans Administration Hospital. Students from our school joined with students from surrounding communities in providing essential social services for the men and women patients at the hospital. They write letters, read to the patients, work in the occupational therapy unit and, in general, do any work that will relieve the overburdened staff of the hospital. Our students have volunteered for a three hour tour of duty every Monday afternoon. The program has been coordinated by Mr. Taylor, the Administrative Assistant of the high school. The work our students perform has great therapeutic value and their weekly tour of duty is looked forward to most eagerly by the patients. It is their one chance to associate with the youth of the community and the patients derive great pleasure from this association. This service organization is one of the most beneficial groups in the high school.

MATH TEAM

Considering the problems most of us have in math, the people talented enough to participate in the Math Team seem quite impressive. Doing math homework all night is a bother, but it is incomparable to being given ten minutes to answer three difficult problems concerning algebra, geometry, trigonometry, or word problems.

The team, advised by Miss Wohllebe, consists of five students for each meet chosen from a group of seven. Arlington competes in four meets a year in one division of the Greater Boston Math League which includes Arlington Catholic, Lexington, Winchester, Stoneham, Concord-Carlisle, Lawrence, and Haverhill.

LIBRARY CORPS

Those students you see checking out books, organizing cards and filing books in the Senior or Freshman Library are members of the active Library Corps headed this year by Mary Ronan. Not only do they help Mrs. Hynson, Mrs. Potter, and Mrs. Lepie with the mundane work of the library, but they also completely plan and execute the yearly Book Fair, this year highly successful in its African Safari theme. The corps usually ends its year with a wild club outing and its annual gift to the library.

Probably one of the least known but most important institutions at A.H.S. is the Office Assistants. The girls perform invaluable services and help in manifold ways in the Housemasters' Offices, the Guidance Department, and even in the head bastion of the school, the Main Office. They perform such diverse services as bringing discipline slips to persons rebellious to the Establishment, filing documents in cabinets, placing mail in the mail room, and collecting daily attendance records. The girls help A.H.S. to run more smoothly thanks to their numerous efforts.

If you like to sing, are willing to give up two studies a week, and don't mind Mr. Thebodo's miserable puns, then you are a potential member of the Girls' Glee Club. The members sing anything from "Matchmaker" of Fiddler on the Roof to Russian folk music, and they enjoy every minute of it.

GIRLS' CHOIR

Girls' Choir is composed of a group of girls who give up three studies a week to practice under the direction of Mr. McElhiney. The result is several enjoyable Christmas Assemblies, an exchange concert, and a really excellent performance at the annual Spring Concert. The type of music they perform is not easy either, composers range from Kodály to Randall Thompson to Langden Hughes to DeGong to Houston Bright.

CHEERLEADERS

Probably the prettiest if not the most talented squad in years, the cheerleaders of the 1968-69 season are the most original group yet. The organization and appearance of the cheerleaders have been changed and improved; from their marvelous new uniforms to the reorganized squad (six seniors and six juniors), new precision cheering, and newly formed JV squad. The cheerleaders have presented an image of innovation.

The JV squad is something totally new—and they added to the Thanksgiving game and pep rally as well as the JV football games. They've even created some of their own cheers!

Under the lively direction of Teresa Bottoni and Pat Colliton, advised by Miss Steele, the cheerleaders have devoted an immense part of their time to practicing for the games. The cheers may look effortless, but it takes three nights a week during summer vacation, and one day a week during school (every day during rally and competition time) just to get in practice to cheer at all the football, hockey, and home basketball games, as well as the rallies.

MAJORETTES

Back Row: E. Morgan, C. Sandberg, D. Kirkland, K. Leahy, G. Segelstrom, K. Kelly, D. Carey, J. Schnare, M. Marchetti, J. Breen, C. Vouros. Center: B. Icton.

Presenting one of the longest and most complicated half-time entertainments of all the surrounding towns is not easy. The majorettes meet three times a week during the summer and every day after school during the football season just to get ready. (You can watch their practice in the corridor outside M-2 if you don't mind getting bonked with a flying baton every so often.)

Barbara Icton, the leader of the group, feels that a half-time show presented by the majorettes is "expected at a football game". From the general reaction of the crowd, you can tell it's not only expected, it's looked forward to.

SAMETTES

Third Row: D. Shaw, D. Cataldo, C. Akins, S. MacQueston, D. Hall, P. Nardone. Second Row: D. Kalafatas, L. Smith, D. Murray, F. Ciampi, M. Travers, E. Travers, Mrs. Bertagna. First Row: B. Savage, M. Ciampi, B. MacQueston, P. Hauser, E. Mochi, P. Kreuz, J. Ferreira, N. Toscano.

Arlington seems to be the only high school which has a group such as the Samettes performing at their football games and pep rallies, as well as in the Veterans' Day and Patriots' Day parades. Composed of twenty girls ranging from freshman to senior, the Samettes voluntarily give up their Tuesday and Friday afternoons and Saturday mornings for practice.

Their routines, which take about a week to learn, are directed by Mrs. Bertagna. The Samettes have grown to know her as "strict, but lots of fun to work with."

As the head of the Samettes, Marilyn Ciampi speaks for all of them when she says, "Although the work is hard and the practices sometimes inconvenient, the spirit of the Samettes is wonderful, and the feeling you get from working together is great."

ORCHESTRA

The 1968-69 orchestra is undoubtedly the most outstanding in recent years. Six members were selected to perform in the Northeast Music Festival, and the entire orchestra was selected to participate in the state NMEA convention in Plymouth. A phone call from Amherst led to the orchestra's appearance in a string clinic held at the University of Massachusetts.

Nevertheless, the group still found time for the annual Gilbert and Sullivan show, (this year "Iolanthe"), and the Spring Concert.

The taste in music of Mr. Thebodo had to be commended; the orchestra played pieces by Beethoven, Handel, Haydn, and Sammartini, as well as several more contemporary composers.

A recent development in the music department is the Woodwind Trio. Started during the summer, Mr. Thebodo, Carol Bryant, and Dorothy Grant have played recorder-flute-bassoon trios at several adult education classes, as well as during sixth period for their personal enjoyment.

CONCERT BAND

As the football season closed, the concert band season opened, finding the usual forty select musicians ready to perform. Mr. Thebodo's choice of music included several extremely difficult selections, even a twelve-tone piece for tape-recorder and band. The band did not overlook the usual classical pieces while managing to include genuine crowd-pleasers. In addition to the annual Spring Concert, the band performed in a joint Wakefield-Arlington concert under the sponsorship of former AHS band director, Mr. Laman. And, as usual, exchange concerts and assemblies filled out the program of the concert band.

"Iolanthe" is one of the most difficult of the Gilbert and Sullivan operettas to produce. Aside from the problems in transforming a group of high school girls into light-footed fairies and finding enough boys to convert into a chorus of lords, the musical score and stage actions are difficult in themselves. The rehearsals were long and arduous, even under the patient guidance of Mr. Einzig ("Come on, girls. Do it once more for a poor old man."). The costumes were so voluminous that you were apt to rip the stupid things to shreds skipping around the stage. By the time April rolled around, you were so sick of that damn routine that you started doing it in your sleep. The week before the show was sheer misery; all the leads had colds and after each rehearsal, the chorus was so tired it tended to drop where it stood. But by some miracle (as it always happens), the club pulled together, and, as usual, the program was a smash.

HARMONETTES

Under the somewhat frenzied direction of Mr. McElhiney ("I do more praying in this class."), the Harmonettes this year, composed of nine seniors and one "wrinkle-browed" sophomore, have put together a more diversified and demanding program than before. The songs are usually modern, from "Up, Up, and Away" to a madly choreographed "Thoroughly Modern Millie" which leaves most of the Harmonettes gasping for breath.

The audiences have been enthusiastic, and as a result the Harmonettes have been asked to perform more than ever before—they sang eleven times between the eleventh and twenty-second of December alone. Perhaps the best reason they sound so good this year is the fact that they have been singing as a group from two to three years. After all, the Harmonettes have stuck together through thick and thin, through toil and turmoil . . .

In September of 1968 several eager numismatists gathered in Room 32 to form an AHS Coin Club. Under the auspices of Mr. O'Connor the members have collected many valuable coins, such as an 1871 proof-ceded Liberty dollar, one of only 950 minted, worth over $300. They have also visited various coin shows in Arlington, Stoneham, Boston and Providence. Even though it concentrates mainly on American coins, the club still has had difficulty in acquiring rare coins since few are in circulation.

YEARBOOK

The dedication and the spirit of the yearbook staff coupled with the experience of the faculty adviser, Mr. Trevisani, were the basic ingredients that made the 1969 Indian. Work on the book was continuous from the summer of 1968 until March of 1969, with a flurry of activity just before deadlines.

Not only does the book serve as a record of the class of 1969, but it also captures the exuberance of youth and the anticipation of the future.

TECHNICAL-VOCATIONAL

In the Technical-Vocational High School, the Student Council is composed of nine members. They are: Louis Angelo, Anthony Bento, Gary Brown, Philip Capogna, Ronald DuLong, Kevin Ferry, Dana Shea, John Wilson, and Richard Winter. These students are selected from each department—Electronics, Machine, and Automotive. Meeting with the Director from time to time, the Council discusses various problems and situations. The students not only present problems affecting their respective trades, but also offer constructive suggestions on matters concerning the whole school. Through this exchange of advice and ideas, teachers and students profit by being able to understand each other better. As a direct result of this communication, the Director and faculty can more readily cope with problems as they arise in the shops and laboratories of the school.

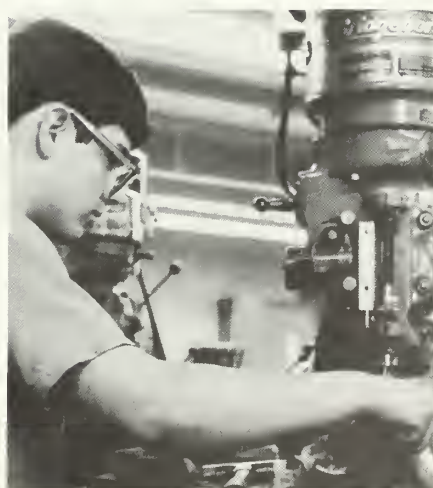

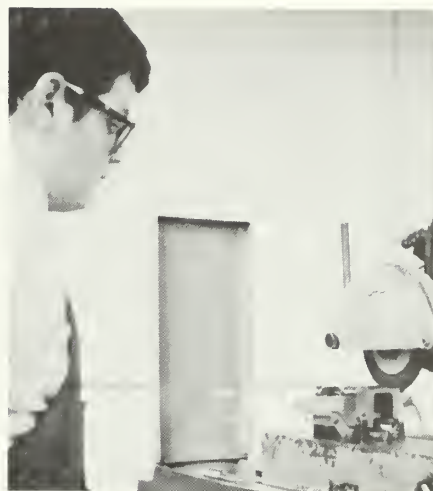

Arlington Tech students, like other high school students, take course requirements in English, social studies, algebra, geometry, physics, and physical training. Shop and lab work are of major importance and technical students devote 50% of their total time to this type of instruction. This is done by alternating weeks of academic work with weeks of technical training.

SCRIBE

The staff of The Scribe for 1969 has been busily trying to improve the quality of the magazine rather than to publish a large quantity of issues. Under editor-in-chief, Michael Abruzzese, the staff of five editors has succeeded both in improving the literary quality of the magazine and in perfecting the technical aspects of publishing such a magazine.

LAB ASSISTANTS

Besides money and students, lab assistants are a major factor in making life tolerable or even happy for the teachers in the Science Department. They do many things well, but their greatest contribution to AHS is that they are fun to be with.

Fifty devoted band members have met three times a week this year in order to create the most outstanding marching band in their circuit. Assisted by officers Peter Murray, Carol Bryant, John Liotine, and Dorothy Grant, Bob Olson, and Jeannette LeBrun, Mr. Thebodo and drum major Caleb Rogers turned out a smaller and more compact band unit, which is still undefeated in performance.

The music ranged from recent popular hits to Negro spirituals, with the band using the Michigan-State style patterns of motion.

The band had a record number of senior class members this year, giving the band a far more polished look than in the past. The Patriot's Day, Veterans' Day, and Memorial Day parades benefitted greatly from the band's appearance.

FOOTBALL

The varsity football team managed to survive a shaky start to finish the season with a respectable record of four wins, four losses, and one tie. Plagued by costly fumbles and interceptions, the squad could win only once in its first six games. Offense seemed to be the mid-season problem, for in one three week period during the season, the team could not fashion a single point while the defense allowed but two touchdowns. But as the season progressed, the offense improved, the defense remained strong, and the team was victorious in its last three games.

The team, led by seventeen seniors and co-captains Bobby Baker and Peter Flanagan, displayed the traditional spirit of an Arlington High School team. Once again the coaching staff of Mr. Burns, Mr. Bevins, and Mr. Hill is to be praised for their efforts in bringing another satisfying football season to A.H.S.

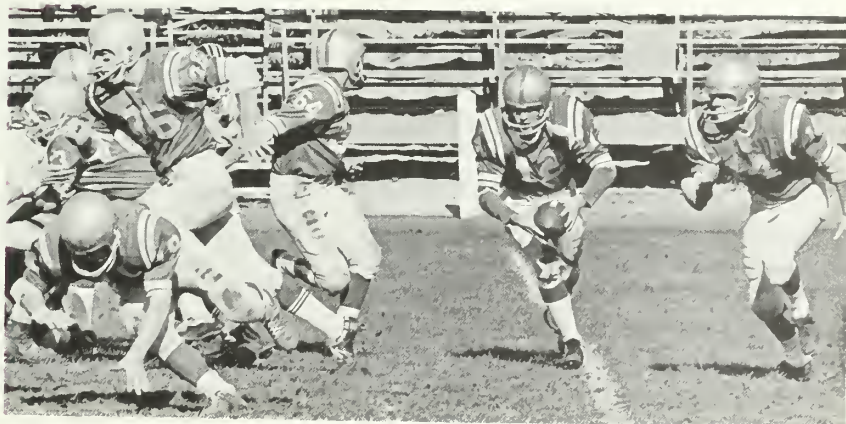

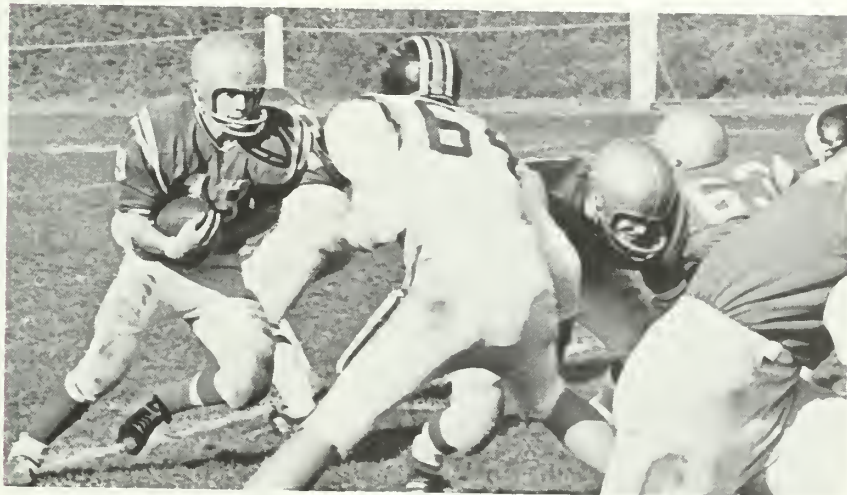

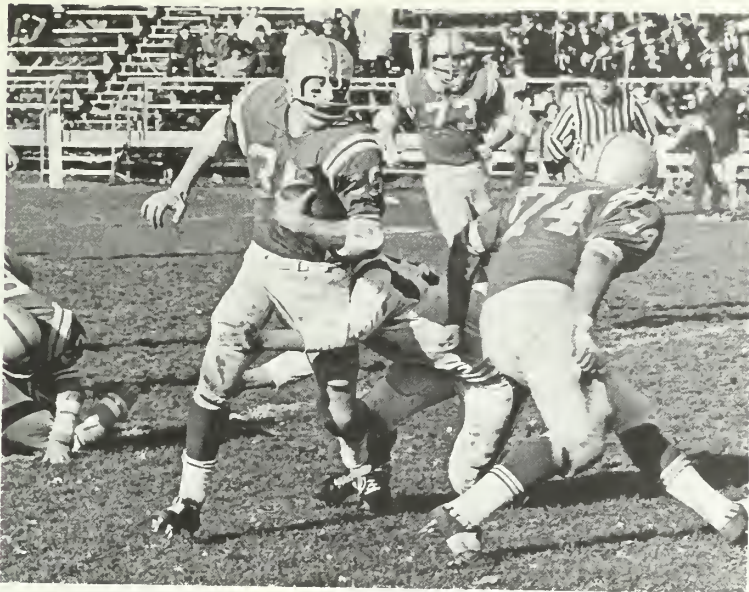

Coaches Bevins, Burns, and Hill.

Bob Baker, Pete Flanagan, co-captains.

For the second straight year, the varsity hockey team had to settle for second place behind Brookline in the GBI league. The return of thirteen players from last year's Eastern Mass. champions was not enough to dethrone the league champs. However, the record of eleven wins and three losses was good enough to qualify for the state tournament for the twenty-first time in the past twenty-two seasons.

Basically a strong defensive team, the squad's main problem seemed to be scoring. Nevertheless, the team led the league with the most goals scored (61) as well as the least goals scored against (12). Junior Kent Davison led the league in scoring with 22 points. He was followed in the scoring by senior forwards Bernie Quinlan and Tony Lyons.

Though no Arlington player was named to the first all-star team, Arlington placed the most players on the combined three teams. Co-captain Dave Brine and junior Kent Davison were named to the 2nd team. Co-captain Joe Bertagna along with senior Bernie Quinlan and junior Mark Noonan received third team recognition.

BASKETBALL

Although the basketball team was rated to finish high in the Suburban League, the team finished with a frustrating 4-14 record in the league and a 4-16 record overall. The reason for the disappointing record was a combination of many inadequacies. Despite the poor finish the team received excellent support from the students and proved to be exciting in their losing effort.

There were fine individual performances by Captain Dave O'Leary, Bob Cuccio, John Carvello, and Barry Yunes. O'Leary led the league in scoring for the second consecutive year and was elected to the first all-league team. He also became the first player in AHS history to score more than 1000 points in his career. Cuccio, the leading rebounder, turned in a consistent yearlong performance while averaging over 14 points per game and was rewarded with a third team all-league selection. Carvello and Yunes, the starting guards, were consistent with their defense and play-making with Carvello leading the team in assists and Yunes leading in steals. (Another honor went to Jim Nigro who led the league in personal fouls.)

Because of a slow start, the team couldn't manage to get above .500, but the steady improvement and desire exhibited by Coach "Red" Hill's boys showed the character that is sometimes more important than winning. The seniors graduating from this year's team are Dave O'Leary, Bob Cuccio, John Carvello, Barry Yunes, Jim Nigro, Kevin Driscoll, Roger Krikorian, and Tom Kelly. Returning next year are Paul McCarthy, Bernie Driscoll, Mark Sullivan, Jim Kostopolous, and Joe Lewko.

This year's cross country teams proved to be the most successful in many years. Led by co-captains Thomas Heaslip and Peter Chase, the varsity runners finished in second place with a record of six wins and one loss. The only loss of the season was inflicted by Newton, the league champs. Other seniors on the team were Harry Gennis, Mike Ceurvels, and Bill Mahoney.

The junior varsity squad also enjoyed a successful season, finishing undefeated to win their division. In the following scores of the varsity meets the least points determine the winner.

INDOOR TRACK

Coming off last year's losing record, the indoor track team responded with a fine record of four wins and two losses to finish in a three way tie for second place in the Met league. Coach Kelley's squad suffered defeats at the hands of league leader Randolph and Milton who, along with Somerville, also finished in second.

Led by nine seniors including captain Mike Ceurvels, the squad showed no signs of the inexperience that plagued them last year. Other seniors on the squad were Bob Baker, Bob Cuccio, Tom Molloy, Tom Heaslip, Pete Scozzari, Pete Wyne, Bill Mahoney and Charlie Barnaby.

In post-season meets, Arlington was well represented. In the all-league meet, both Mike Ceurvels and Barry Santini placed. While in the state meet, Mike Ceurvels and Paul Manderino qualified, and Paul placed fourth.

GYMNASTICS

Second Row: Asst. Coach J. Gleason, K. Chin, S. Hilferty, S. Catalano, S. Wharton, J. Serson, M. Rosa, Coach Fairbanks. First Row: K. Dionne, B. Allen, R. Dionne, A. Camacho, J. Goshdigian, B. Cronin.

Coach Harold Fairbanks has to be congratulated for the job he did with the gymnastic team this season, despite its won-loss record. The team was plagued with injuries and the losses of good gymnasts, yet it still managed to provide the opposition with good competition.

Coach Fairbanks will be losing six senior lettermen this year including captain Richard Dionne. Other seniors leaving will be: Arthur Camacho, Kevin Dionne, John Goshdigian, Michael Rosa, David Smith, and Ronnie Winters.

If all goes well, next season should be a good one for the gymnastic team. Many promising juniors are returning including John Serson, Stephen Catalano, Brad Allen, Kevin Chin, Stephen Hilferty, Donald Garrity, and Robert Cronin. Sophomore prospects include Peter Saul and Stanley Wharton.

This year's field hockey team finished the season victoriously with a win over Newton, 2-1. Overall, they compiled a record of 5 wins, 1 loss, and 2 ties. Co-captains Eileen Abruzzese and Ann Mucci led the team and received the Sportsman's Club Most Valuable Player Award jointly for their efforts. Other seniors on the team included Mitty Shaughnessy, Ginny Barnaby, Debbie Getrost, Pam McPherson, Rita Strelis, Marion Oliver, Nanci Mahoney, and Holly Herzog. They were joined by three juniors, eleven sophomores, and six freshmen.

Eileen Abruzzese was the leading scorer with five goals. She was followed by Debbie Getrost and Rusty Murphy with three goals each. Managers of this year's team were Sue Borthwick and Tina Thompson. Many of the players prepared for the season by attending field hockey camp in Vermont last summer. Seniors who enjoyed this week of practice, playing, and fun were Rita Strelis, Mitty Shaughnessy, Nanci Mahoney, Ann Mucci, Debbie Getrost, Eileen Abruzzese, and Marion Oliver.

Eighteen girls played on the "Jayvee" team and produced a record of 3 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. From their ranks will come next year's team, which will try to surpass this year's team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Co-captains Ginny Barnaby and Debbie Getrost led the 1968-69 basketball team to an amazing record of 8 wins and 1 loss, and then all the way to the finals of the Billerica Invitational Tournament. These two girls broke five Arlington records, including: total points in a season (126); total points in one game (24); field goals in a season (54); field goals in one game (11)—all by Debbie, and free throws in a season (28) by Ginny. In addition to this outstanding pair, three other seniors, Ann Mucci, Eileen Abruzzese, and Nanci Mahoney, won letters.

In the Tournament, they defeated North Reading, 54-28, North Middlesex 39-21, and Sutton 35-24, but then suffered a heartbreaking loss to Newton 32-31. Ginny Barnaby, Debbie Getrost, and Eileen Abruzzese were named to the All-Tourney team, and the Arlington squad was honored with the Most Sportsmanlike Award. It was an experience not to be forgotten.

Because last year's team was composed mainly of juniors who returned this season, there was a feeling of unity which pervaded the team, and it appeared a cohesive unit in all of its play. The four juniors and one sophomore who were a part of this team certainly deserve a share of the credit for the seasoned performance shown.

that first job . . .

Look over your employer
as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
